The Concordia College High School Honor Band Weekend is designed to engage the finest high school wind and percussion instrumentalists in the Upper Midwest in an intensely challenging and rewarding music making experience. Students are selected by audition and receive both chamber music and large ensemble performance experience as part of the event. In addition to interaction with Concordia College music faculty, a nationally renowned composer and chamber ensemble bring authentic insights into the art of music. For more information, please visit www.ConcordiaCollege.edu/honorband or contact Kent Loken at loken@cord.edu.

DR. SCOTT A. JONES, CONDUCTOR

Dr. Scott A. Jones is an assistant professor of music and director of bands at Concordia College. In addition to conducting The Concordia Band, his teaching responsibilities include instrumental conducting and instrumental music education.

A native of Fairfax, Va., Jones received his undergraduate degree in music education from The Ohio State University in Columbus, a master's degree in music education from Vander Cook College of Music in Chicago, and a Ph.D. in music from the University of Minnesota. He was named Music Educator of the Year by the Minnesota Music Educators Association in 2002, and was one of three school band conductors from the United States selected to participate in the 2004 National Band Association International Conducting Symposium in Rome, Italy.

DR. MARK CAMPHOUSE, GUEST COMPOSER/CONDUCTOR

A product of the rich cultural life of Chicago, composer-conductor Dr. Mark Camphouse was born in Oak Park, Ill., in 1954 and received his formal musical training at Northwestern University. He began composing at an early age, with the Colorado Philharmonic premiering his First Symphony at age 17. His works for wind band have received widespread critical acclaim and are performed frequently throughout the United States and abroad. Engagements as a guest conductor, lecturer and clinician have taken him to 36 states, Canada and Europe. Camphouse is an elected member of the American Bandmasters Association and serves as conductor of the National Band Association's Young mentor project. The newest member to the full-time faculty at George Mason University, Camphouse was formerly Professor of Music and Director of Bands at Radford University in Virginia.
